

Part-time Mathematics Instructor

Department of General Education

Job Summary:

The Department of General Education at University of the West invites applications for a part-time, adjunct faculty position to teach two mathematics courses: MATH 101 (Intermediate Algebra) and MATH 113 (Pragmatic Math).

Candidates must have a commitment to undergraduate teaching and service to the University. The position is for fall semester 2017 that starts 8/21/17.

Qualifications

- PhD in mathematics and/or MA in Math Education from an accredited university preferred
- Experience teaching quantitative reasoning/developmental/remedial and college-level math courses
- Experience addressing the educational needs of first-generation and 1.5 undergraduates from diverse ethnic backgrounds, English language learners from Asian-language backgrounds, and at-risk students

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities

- Demonstrated commitment to intercultural and interdisciplinary learning
- Experience using high-impact learning techniques
- Student-centered approach to teaching

Review of applications will begin immediately. Position will remain opened until filled.

Please submit an application, brief cover letter, curriculum vitae/resume, and a list of at least three professional references to:

University of the West, Human Resources
1409 Walnut Grove Avenue, Rosemead, CA 91770
Email: hr@uwest.edu